UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

TENNLEY VIK

Case No. 3:23-CV-00398-MMD-EJY

Plaintiff,

vs.

STATE OF NEVADA ex rel. BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE NEVADA SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION, ON BEHALF OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA RENO,

Defendant.

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Any party or non-party may designate as “confidential” (by stamping the relevant page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or confidential personal and/or business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Nevada law (“Confidential Information”). Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential information appears shall be so designated.

1 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in
2 response to written discovery as “confidential” by so indicating in said response or on the record
3 at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
4 Additionally, a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt of 5 said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that
6 specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as “confidential”
7 information. Any other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such 8 objection, the parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any 9 designation made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated 10 documents or information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is 11 resolved according to the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all
12 parties shall be responsible for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated 13 material in their possession or control with the specified designation.

14 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 15 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the 16 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

17 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this 18 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be 19 disclosed to any person other than:

20 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel and 21 co-counsel retained for this litigation;

22 (b) employees of such counsel;

23 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a party, to 24 the extent deemed necessary by counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

25 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this
26 litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this
27 Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the Confidential
28 Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the pendency or after

1 the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of the Court) before
2 being shown or given any Confidential Information;

3 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

4 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

5 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall sign the 6 Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential Information may be
7 disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a deposition at which the party
8 who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has been given notice that 9 Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to paragraph 2 above.
10 Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain copies.

11 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 12 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set 13 forth herein.

14 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with the 15 Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those
16 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the Court's electronic filing procedures
17 in accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties,
18 the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption
19 in favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447
20 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

21 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials
22 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document
23 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or 24 discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without 25 restriction any information designated by that party or non-party as confidential, although a 26 document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

27 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 28 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the

1 material. The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days
2 from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material
3 as confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that
4 the document is entitled to protection.

5 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
6 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
7 unless and until one of the following occurs:

8 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information
9 withdraws such designation in writing;

10 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information fails
11 to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the time period
12 specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or

13 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

14 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
15 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless 16 otherwise agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of 17 Confidential Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and 18 deposition transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after 19 conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or non-party who provided such information, or 20 (b) destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of the party who provided 21 the information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that the documents have been 22 destroyed.

23 11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the use
24 of documents at trial.

25 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege, work product
26 protection, confidentiality or protection afforded by state or federal regulation, statute or law.
27 In accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B), if material inadvertently 28 produced in discovery is subject to a claim of privilege, the party making the claim may notify any party that received the material of the claim and the basis for it. After being so notified, the notified party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified material and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the material until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the material if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the material to the Court under seal for a determination of the claim. The inadvertent disclosure in this action by a party of its own privileged document or information, regardless of whether the material was so designated at the time of disclosure, shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a party's claim of privilege, either as to the specific information disclosed, as to any other information relating thereto, or on the same or related subject matter. The receiving party upon receiving a privilege log identifying the document remains free to challenge any claim of privilege or protection, but shall not make any claim that the production of the document was a waiver of any privilege or protection. Moreover, absent a ruling that the document or information at issue is not privileged or protected, a receiving party may not disclose or make any use whatsoever of the material disclosed in or derived from the document or information at issue.

13. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.

14. The Court's jurisdiction over this agreement shall terminate upon dismissal of this action.
